REMINISCENSES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

While working on the building for the new shoe factory, E. W. Cole, a carpenter, was instantly killed on the morning of June 13th, by accidentally falling from a scaffold. Cole was at work on the scaffold in front and near the top of the building. He had nailed on a piece of rustic, but as the position of the board did not suit him he attempted to pull it off with his hands. The hold of the nails was loosened suddenly and the force of the shock threw him off the scaffold from which he fell to the ground about 20 feet below, striking on his back and shoulders. He was picked up insensible and medical aid summoned. It was evident to the physicians that from the first there was practically no hope of saving the life of the injured man, and although he lived until after noon of the following day he never recovered consciousness.

That race suicide had not altogether become the fashion in San Mateo county, is shown by the following news item published about that time: "Born, in Pescadero, June 18, 1872, to the wife of Felipe Armas, a son. This it the fourteenth child born to Mr. Armas."

Apparently Redwood City found in its earlier days, as it has done since, that towns as well as individuals have their seasons of depression and times of prosperity. During the yeer 1871 the town apparently was "a dead one," there being no particular step of progress and but little attempt on the part of its citizens at improvement. With the coming of the next year, however, there occurred the inevitable return swing of the pendulum and a return of prosperity. With this appears to have been a revival of the spirit of enterprise and the work of building up the town took upon itself new vigor, as is evidenced from some of the notes of progress gathered from the issue of the Gazette of July 13th, where under the heading of "Improvements Everywhere" is noted the following: "One year ago today there was hardly a dollar's worth of improvement going on in Redwood City. How changed! Now piles of material and mechanics are to be seen in every direction from the postoffice. Plump's brick building is receiving the finishing touches. The masons are laying the brick on the second story of Kucks. Ceiling and partitions are being put into Mason's boot and shoe factory. A second story is being put on the building occupied by King's barber shop, to be used by Welborn in connection with his restaurant. The fourth story of the American House is about to have skylights and side windows punched in it, a room 40 by 80 feet, of sufficient capacity to accommodate 50 lodgers, added, and a new sidewalk is being laid the entire length of the hotel. The Diller brick building, now occupied as the mercantile emporium of W. W. Armstrong, is being painted. Barns and dwellings are going up in the suburbs. The Congregational church is to be turned half around, steeple torn down, seats multiplied, gallery torn out, and in fact almost reconstructed. The Baptists have a fine church in course of erection. Redwood is not dead, and those who predict her death and moove away because it works on their sympathies to attend a funeral, will come back in a few years to look upon the liveliest corpse in the state.

On the evening of July 3d, the following were installed as the new officers of Bay View Lodge, I. O. O. F., district deputy grand master B. A. Rankin acting as the installing officer: J. H. Offerman, noble grand; H. E. Jewett, vice grand; J. Schelly, recording secretary; T. W. Lathrop, treasurer; B. Rankin, permanent secretary; A. McPherson, warden; William Holder, conductor; W. J. Welborn and J. W. Glennan, supporters to noble grand; George Wentworth and B. F. Cooper, supporters to vice grand; C. P. Fox and John Kreiss, scene supporters; A. F. Cornell, inner guard, J. C. Edgar, outside guard.

A week later the officers of Metamora Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men were installed as-follows: H. B. Thompson sachem; A. F. Cornell, senior sagamore; G. Plump, junior sagamore; J. A. Doutrick, chief of records; A. Underhill, keeper of wampum.

By the end of July the building for the Mason & Co. boot and shoe factory was completed and ready for occupancy. The machinery for the factory had been ordered in the East, and a delay in its arrival compelled the postponement of the actual opening of the new enterprise for nearly a month.

On the 1st of September, before a jury in the district court, Joe Herling was placed on trial for murder for the killing in cold blood of Claus Klerck at San Mateo in the month of April. The defense made no attempt to deny the fact that Herling had murdered his victim, but made a strong plea of insanity and introduced a number of experts to substantiate this contention. In this they were successful, as after a trial lasting two days Herling was acquitted, the jury accepting this plea.

Rehearsing for the Fourth

The choral society is practicing on two songs to be rendered during the exercises on the Fourth. The society desires additional vocalists and all residents who have musical talent are invited to attend the meeting of the society at the parlors of the Congregational church tomorrrow evening at 8:30 o'clock.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

The decision of the management of the Redwood City ball grounds to withdraw the baseball game announced for the afternoon of Memorial Day was one which should meet with the hearty approval of every resident of this city. The purposes for which the people have set apart this day are far too sacred to be marred by indulgence in sports, no matter how harmless or otherwise proper such sports may be.

New Labor Advocate.

The initial number of the San Mateo County Labor Index, the latest journalistic venture in San Mateo County, has been issued at San Mateo by its publishers Messrs. W. B. Benoist and J. Wain. As indicated by its title, the new publication will be devoted primarily to the advocacy of the cause of organized labor, though the first number indicates that this will not be its only field, as a very considerable space is devoted to general news and comment. The new paper is creditably gotten up and its editorial columns indicate both care and ability.

Consider Best Public Good.

Every resident of Redwood City who feels an interest in the location of the new municipal building should attend the meeting of the City Council Monday evening and be prepared to state the grounds for their choice. This is a matter of more than usual public importance, and one that should not be decided without the fullest investigation and discussion.

The decision of the Trustees to secure a full public discussion before arriving at a decision in a matter as important as this one is a wise one and should bring out a full expression of opinion. At the same time, if the discussion is to be of public good, it must be held in a spirit of disinterestedness. Those who attend should go prepared to discuss the subject in the light of the best public good, rather than with a view to private gain. The mere opportunity to dispose of a piece of property at a good price or the prospect of enhancement in values which would naturally accrue to any neighborhood from the location of a building of this character should not be allowed to influence any good citizen in the consideration of a matter of such general interest to the community.

Strong With Union Labor.

The following is taken from the San Mateo County Labor Index, the exponent of organizede labor in San Mateo County:

Jas. T. O'Keefe, born in San Francisco, came to Menlo Park with his parents when only onen year old. Resided on a farm near Menlo Park and after finishing in the grammar school there entered St. Mary's College, and shortly upon graduation engaged in the mercantile business. After a few years spent in that vocation O'Keefe entered Hastings College of law and graduated in 1892 and immediately began practicing in Redwood City. The same year he was elected on the Republican ticket as a member of the Assembly. He supported the McGowan eight hour bill for the logging camps. Secured for the county the famous Pebble Beach at Pescadero, which prior to this was held by private ownership.

One of the measures he fathered and prepared and successfully got through both houses was the amendment to Sec. 204 of the Code of Civil Procedure, taking away from the Board of Supervisors the right to select grand jurors and placing the appointment with a Superior Court of the state.

O'Keefe is a straight republican and for the past eighteen years has taken the stump for his party. He is a candidate for the nomination of the republican party for the office of District Attorney.

The Family Club are making many improvements at their farm at Portola. A great number of the members visited the farm during the week end. There are large crowds there during Saturday and Sunday. They motor down from the city.

Well Deserved Praise.

There are few candidates in the field to whom the Leader can so cheerfully give its support. Mr. Nash is well konwn and a favorite agaist whom few men, if any, will are to enter the field. He is not the kind to have no enemies. He is too positive and business-like in his determination to do what is right to suit some. This is a rare qualification in political officers, and one which merits support just as positive and determined. A good man in office is a good man to keep there, and good people should make it a special point to see that Mr. Nash goes back where his faithful work recommends him. He is a cheerful, energetic and honest official, support him.—San Mateo Leader.

During the adjournment the attorneys will have some dispositions taken in the southern portion of the state. The case will not be submitted for some weeks yet .Coburn was on the stand all day Thursday and showed a woeful lack of memory. He did not know the name of the trial judge nor the attorney engaged in the case.Coburn's memory is failing rapidly and he has constantly to consult a memorandum he carries in his coat pocket. Another Court Says Dry.

Without leaving the bench, the Appellate Court on last Tuesday rendered a decision against the Menlo Park saloon men who had appealed to the higher court to test the constitutionality of the law that prohibits the sale of liquor within a mile and a half of the Stanford Campus. The case was originally tried by Judge Hannon who found Barney Burke guiltyof selling liquor within the dry zone. An appeal was taken and Judge Sturtevant confirmed the decision. The Appellate court denied the habeas corpus writ and remanded the prisoner to the custody of the sheriff. The saloon men held a conference with their attorneys yesterday and concluded to further appeal to the Supreme Court. The papers are being prepared and the case will go to that tribunal on Monday next on a writ of habeas corpus. If the court declines to hear the matter that settles the case, should it, however, grant a writ it will be made returnable in a few days so that the final decision may be expected within a short time. The saloon men have agreed to close on hearing from the Supreme Court if the decision is against them.

The big benefit for the Fourth of July celebration at the Gem Theater next Tuesday will certainly have a big program. Guiseppi Orchesa, late of Milan Conservatory of Music, an accomplished musician and MissMart Pennington, violinist will be an added attraction.

CURRY ANNOUNCES PLATFORM POINTS

Candidate for Governor States Principles Upon Which He Asks People's Support

The widespread popularity and admitted fittness of Charles F. Curry for the high office of Governor,have inspired a natural desire, on the part of the voting public, to obtain from him some explicit announcement of his position in reference to the leading issues of the campaign. The following are some of the issues he subscribes to::

I believe that the primary duty of the Governor is to guide and to improve the management and methods of the schools, the asylums and charitable institutions. There is here an enormous field for the exercise of discretion, economy and administration. However well these institutions may now be governed and financed there is always opportunity for advancement and improvement.

I believe it is the duty of the Governor ,to maintain an intimate supervision over every institution and utility which the state controls and upon which it expends public money. It is the duty of theGovernor to command the conduct of prisons and reformatories, to direct the expenditure of funds upon state utilities and enterprises such as waterfronts, harbors and roads.

I believe that without the expenditure of a single extra dollar, in fact while saving public money, the various public institutions of this state can be improved and it would be my first aim as Governor to advance the standard of each of our penal and charitable institutions until it is the equal of any in the world. These I take it are among the primary duties of administration which the Governor is called upon to perform.

My platform of principles is a brief one. I believe in the governmental control of the state and its energies absolutely by the people. I believe in an efficient, economical management of all public institutions—charitable, penal and educational. I believe in a business like, progressive conduct of great state utilities, of water fronts, rivers, harbors and roads. I believe in a just, impartial administration of the laws in which no one shall have favor and all shall have fairness.

As a candidate for Governor of California I have neither sectional, factional nor class endorsement and I will accept no such bargain. I have refused emphatically to combine with anyone, although many overtures have been made to me to do so, for any other places on the state ticket. I am simply an aspirant for Governor of California subject to the decision which the Republicans of the state will make in August

Insinuations have been made that I am controlled by some particular influences. A reference to a few facts prominently before the public in this campaign will, I think, prove beyond controversy my independence. I began my campaign for governor many months before anyone else was even spoke of in the same connection. Long before any of the other aspirants were announced I was in the field. I have not the endorsement of any faction. I am appealing to the Republicans as a whole. I have positively refused to retire from the race until the results of the primary election are declared. These facts should demonstrate that I am under no domination either factional, sectional or class.

I am a Republican and I am asking the Republicans of California for the nomination for Governor. In national politics I stand with the Republican party where I have always belonged. I endorse the policies both of Roosevelt and of Taft for I have no doubt both are inspired by the same purpose and, though differing in methods perhaps, are both seeking the same beneficial end.

I believe the state should do all in its power to aid the southern counties to conserve and develop their water supply. I believe that the great valleys of central CCalifornia should be reclaimed as rapidly as possible and made fertile for agriculture .

The plan to uncork the Sacramento River is excellent as far as it goes but I believe that if the navigation of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers were made perfect the cost awould be justified many times over by the results which would inevitably follow such improvement. The immense interests involved, the enormous value of the lands which would be added to the assessment rolls and the prosperity of thousands of new citizens thriving on the reclaimed area would amply justify the undertaking.

I believe that capital and labor should be on an absolute equality before the law. Capital has a right to fairreturns from its investments and labor has a perfect right to organize for its protection, for the improvement of its conditions and for the advancement of its interests.

There should be no discrimination between individuals in the execution and administration of the laws. No individual or corporation should enjoy any special privileges from any public or quasi-public corporation. This I believe, outlines the primary principles of my platform as a candidate for Governor of California.

CHAS. F. CURRY.

HONORS PAID TO HEROES OF NATION

Citizens Join With Veterans In Paying Tribute to Soldier Dead of the Nation.

Memorial Day—that holy time set aside by the people of the Nation to the loving memory of their patriot dead—was fittingly observed in this city last Monday. The formal exercises, which were under the direction of Gen. Geo. S. Evans Post, G. A. R., and the Womens Relief Corys, were held in the afternoon at the Alhambra Theater, and were presided over by P. P. Ceamberlain as Post Commander, who opened the services with the following appropriate words to his comrades:

"This day commemorates a valor on sea and on land that is illustrious. This day is eloquent with a patriotism which did not speak only from the lips. This day is sacred with the almost visible presence of those who out of prison pens and hospitals, from camps and battlefields, have joined the innumerable company of those who muster today upon the parade grounds of heaven. Comrades, Salute the Dead."

The program leading up to and following the speech for the day was composed principally of recitations and songs, truly patriotic and delightfully rendered. To hear over a hundred school children singone's national airs sets the heart strings moving strangely, and "need one fear to own a tear when the song he holds most dear" is tugging away at his tender recollections.

Prof. L. D. Inskeep, of Oakland, delivered the address of the day. His opening statement recalled once more the fact that the Grand Army of the Republic is rapidly passing away. "At the roll call of June 30, 1909, 32-831 old soldiers answered that call, above, at the command of the Great Commander.". He lead up from the War of the Revolution to the War of the Rebellion, showing how each was fought for a righteous principle; how the "Boys of 61," "soldiers as they were" were men who reverenced the sacred things of life, how they respected the "little girl with the string around her neck," because of the little ones they had left behind, perhaps never to see again.

The exercises in the Alhambra were carried out according to program and the veterans, accompanied by the Womens' Relief corps and the children of the schools, marched to Union cemetery where the graves of the dead were decorated by the living.

At the Methodist Church.

Regardless of the unusually warm weather the Methodist church was filled last Sunday evening, the occasion being the Memorial Sunday Service. The members of the local Grand Army post and Relief Corps attended in a body. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and the altar rail was draped with the national colors, while back of the pulpit hung the stars and stripes.

The exercises opened with appropriate selections by the choir. Rev. Mr. Parker, pastor of the Baptist church, made the opening prayer, and Rev. C. C. Kirtland, pastor of the Congregational church, read the Scripture lesson.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Thos. Leak, the church pastor, his subject being "Love's Offering, or the Meaning of Memorial Day." He mentioned the fact that a nation as well as individuals gathers flowers as an expression of its love for its patriotic dead whose graves are yearly decorated. The lonliness of many was depicted on account of the 10,-000 veterans who had died during the year and though those present were in company with memory, gratitude and tears, yet it was a cause for thanksgiving that the sore was healed, and in the congregation present were representatives of the various creeds and political parties; people from the south as well as the north, all forgetting their religious distinctions, their political differences in the thought of one country, one heroism and a united people. He referred to the many great moral battles that are being waged to-day and the need for men of high ideals, noble asperations, sterling character, who with the sword of truth should smite the wrong and defend the right.

After paying tribute to those who fell during the Civil War; to the living yet with us, and to the noble army of women who in so many ways materially assisted in those awful days of trife and bloodshed, he briefly outlined the characters of Lincoln, Sherman, Grant, Sheridan, Julia Ward Howe, Mother Bickerdyke and others, concluding with setting forth the lessons of the hour. These were, said the speaker, first the lesson of patriotism; second, the lesson of self sacrifice; third the lesson of devotion to the Union and God. For inasmuch as God has given of his best to save mankind we ought to do likewise, so taking part in life's activity that the world will be better for our work in it.

Some Post History.

Nearly twenty-five years ago, December 31, 1885, ten men of those who had gone through the war and were living at or near Redwood, petitioned for and were granted a charter to form a post of the Grand Army of the Republic. These charter members were Levi Bartholomew, E. W. Thompson, John Poole, B. A. Rankin, P. P. Chamberlain, Henry Walker, Geo. E. Filkins, L. D. Morse, J. A. Calhoun, and Martin Woolf. The first year of the organization, there were added unto them twenty-four other comrades, among them Ludwig Werder and E. O. Rhodes, two of the six that are left as members of the Post.

This was the starting of Gen. Geo. S. Evans Post. During the twenty-five years it has lived, its greatest membership has been thirty-four. Today there are but six, a mute but forceful timony to the sureness of the unconquerable enemy, Death.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Redwood City People.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one special kidney medicine that cures permanently and there is plenty of proof right here in Redwood City.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now states that the cure was lasting.

Fred Haussler, 101 Stambaugh street, Redwood City, Cal., says: "My kidneys were badly disordered and the secretions from these organs were unnatural. Knowing that difficulties of this kind often resulted seriously if allowed to go unchecked, I was anxious to get relief. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a box at P. A. Ryan's drug store and their use completely removed the symptoms of my trouble. In July 1907, I publicly testified in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills and at this time I gladly confirm that statement. During the past two years, I have been free from kidney complaint. This fact justifies my speaking more highly than ever of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Assessor's Instructions

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where the property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

If you hold mortgages against others send in a mortgage statement showing amount due on each mortgage on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns his books over to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July The Board then sets as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.
